255. 1794 Very fine with the center and top bordering on extra fine (same on corresponding parts of reverse), the left stars (and corresponding parts of reverse) are not struck up as much as the right stars. According to descriptions of those sold in auctions over the years, this seems to be normal for most. The usual (according to descriptions of most) short light lines around part of the edge (put on at the mint at time coin was made) which appear on most genuine ones also appears on this making this unquestionably a GENUINE COIN OF THIS RARE DATE, THE FIRST SILVER DOLLAR STRUCK. The new catalog coming out in June should have a catalog value on this rare date of at least $2200.00 or perhaps $2500.00.

256. 1796, Bolender 4, small date and Large Letters, extra fine condition. The catalog value for very fine is $80.00 and uncirculated $250.00, this should have a value of at least $150.00.

257. 1797 Bolender 1c, Stars 9 left 7 right, Large Letters, at first glance this coin looks as if it were UNCIRCULATED but on close examination, a small planchet imperfection is evident on the edge (done in the striking of the coin - happened quite often on these large heavy coins). The belly of the eagle and tips of the wings show where the coin slid on the velvet tray of some old-time coin cabinet. The catalog values this date at $425.00.

258. 1797 Bolender 3, Stars 10 left and 6 right, very good condition. A rare date which according to recent information is about twice as rare as the 9 and 7 star variety, and should therefore be worth from $90.00 to $100.00.

259. 1803 Bolender 6, Large 3, About Uncirculated (shows some friction but does have some luster). The catalog value for Uncirculated is $125.00.

260. 1836 Christian Gobrecht's famous design of Sitting Liberty and eagle in flight, no stars appear on the obverse but 26 stars appear on the reverse for the 26 states. Mr. Breen of the Standard Catalog states that this variety WITH UPSET REVERSE is almost twice as rare as the normal variety appearing in the Guidebook. This beautiful coin has a tiny nick in the obverse field where someone probably dropped another coin on it in the past. The normal variety is valued in the catalog at $690.00 so this rarer variety should have a value of $800.00 to $900.00.

261. 1850 Here's one that came from a Southern dealer who described it as a PROOF. It does, however, have some "handling marks" (tiny nicks or scuffing in field). Nevertheless, it is a rare date missing in many collections. The catalog values this date in proof for $340.00.

262. 1851 ORIGINAL PROOF WITH HIGH DATE. The last record I could find was where a well known Midwestern dealer sold one a year ago from "America's Outstanding Collection of Silver Dollars" at $1500.00. Just found a later record where one sold in a

January auction for $1950.00. Maybe this one will sell from $2,000.00 to $2200.00.

263. 1853 LOVELY PROOF with attractive toning. The standard catalog places its rarity as only 12 struck and valued it about three years ago at $1,000.00. I suppose the next standard catalog will value it at least $1,500.00.

264. 1853 About Uncirculated. Valued in the catalog at uncirculated for $80.00.

265. 1857 LOVELY PROOF with attractive toning, a very tiny nick (which may be seen only upon close examination) may be the only thing to marr its beauty. The catalog value is ridiculous. I doubt if any more were struck of this date in proof than the 1858 which I notice is valued at $600.00.

266. 1859-O About Uncirculated. Valued in catalog for uncirculated at $38.00.

267. 1859-S Extra fine. The only NO MOTTO silver dollar from this mint. Valued in catalog for uncirculated at $115.00, this worth $100.00.

268. 1860-O About Uncirculated. Last year from this mint without motto. Valued in catalog for uncirculated at $39.00.

269. 1870-CC A lovely coin with attractive toning, UNCIRCULATED WITH PROOF SURFACE, inconsequential drop-mark at reverse edge visible only on close examination. The one in "America's Outstanding Collection of Silver Dollars" sold last year by a well known Midwestern dealer sold at $250.00.

270. 1871-CC A LOVELY COIN WITH PROOF SURFACE having attractive toning. A similar one in "America's Outstanding Collection of Silver Dollars" sold last year at $1475.00. With the rapid rise in values for rarities the last year, this VERY RARE COIN IN VERY RARE CONDITION may well now sell at $2,000.00.

271. 1871 Extra fine, tiny nick. $20.00.

272. 1872 About Uncirculated. Catalog value uncirculated at $26.00.

273. 1872-S About Uncirculated, tiny nick in field. Valued in catalog uncirculated at $185.00.

274. 1872-CC About Uncirculated. VERY RARE COIN. May bring $500.00.

275. 1873-CC About Uncirculated. VERY RARE COIN. The one in "America's Outstanding Collection of Silver Dollars" sold last year at $1750.00. Of course it was in better condition but how much better condition can a coin be in? This date was missing in even some of the greatest collections sold. Maybe it will sell $1,000 to $1,200.00.

276. 1849 Open Wreath, small head, no "L" (Longacre) on bust, UNCIRCULATED. Only 1000 struck according to Mr. Breen of the standard catalog. This is a smaller number than any other year except 1875. In 1957 this was cataloged at $75.00; maybe the next catalog will value it at $150.00.

277. 1849-C About Uncirculated. According to a well known dealer, this coin is worth $175.00.

278. 1849-D Uncirculated, a nice sharp strike with nice luster. According to various catalogs I have seen the last year, this coin is worth $200.00.

279. 1850-D Very fine. A nice sharp strike of this VERY RARE COIN. The various auctions I have seen the past year leads me to value this at $175.00.

280. 1851-C About Uncirculated. Charlotte mint coins are now in great demand. Have seen similar coins valued at more than $100.00.

281. 1852-C About Uncirculated. Another rare Charlotte mint coin in great demand. Have seen similar coins valued at more than $125.00.

282. 1853-C Extra Fine. Another rare Charlotte mint coin in great demand. Have seen similar coins valued at more than $125.00.

283. 1854-S Extra fine. The first year of the San Francisco mint and the only small size gold dollar of this mint. Have seen similar valued at over $100.00.

284. 1855-O Extra fine. The only type 2 gold dollar from the New Orleans mint. Have seen similar valued at over $100.00.

285. 1856-S DOUBLE "S" with first "S" much to high, about uncirculated. The only type 2 gold dollar from this mint. Have seen similar valued at over $150.00.

286. 1857-C Extra fine. Another rare Charlotte mint coin in great demand. Much better striking than most I have seen. Have seen similar priced at over $150.00.

287. 1858-S About Uncirculated. Seldom offered. Maybe scarcer than realized. Have seen it valued at over $100.00.

288. 1859-S Very fine. Another scarce San Francisco mint. Have seen it valued over $75.00.

289. 1859-D Uncirculated. Only 4952 struck (one of the rare dates). As long ago as 1957, the standard catalog valued this date at $200.00, with the rapid rise in values since then maybe it will now be worth $375.00.

290. 1860-S Extra fine. The last year before the Civil War. Have seen it valued over $90.00.

291. 1839-C Mint mark appears under bust, about uncirculated. A rare Charlotte mint coin in great demand for a "type" with the mint mark on the obverse. Have seen it valued over $150.00.

292. 1841-C Mint mark appears on reverse (normal) about uncirculated. A rare Charlotte mint coin in great demand. Have seen it valued over $200.00.

293. 1843-C Large Date, extra fine. A rare Charlotte mint coin in great demand. Have seen it valued over $100.00.

Brooklyn Consignment [C. Douglas Smith]

707. 1794 S-56, Hays 12. The famous Office Boy Reverse. EXTREMELY FINE, clean and attractive light brown surfaces. Third finest known example according to Sheldon's Condition Census 175.00
708. 1796 S-99, Rarity 7, VERY GOOD. Evenly work dark gray, the reverse exceptionally strong. Excessively rare - only about a dozen known. Ex Hines and Downing collections and in the Condition Census 90.00
709. 1797 S-134. The Period Variety, so-called because it has a pominent die chip in right obverse field. VERY FINE, reddish brown, a few rim dinges. This is the rare small fraction type, only seen on one other variety of the year. Seldom seen in this preservation. 85.00
710. 1798 S-182, Rariety 6. EXTREMELY FINE. Light brown

mottled with black, beautiful surfaces. Ex Proskey, Hines and Sheldon collections and fourth finest known of the variety. The chance to obtain such a combination of condition, pedigree and rarity in an early cent does not often occur in a numismatic lifetime. $175.00

711. 1798. S-183, Rarity 7. VERY FINE, dark brown, some handling marks but sharp and desirable. Excessively rare - less than a dozen known. Perhaps a more graphic index of this variety's rarity, however, is the fact that it was the only 1798 cent which the late Homer Downing was unable to capture for his famous collection. The inferior Sloss piece brought $120.00 in the Sloss sale last fall. An unrivalled opportunity for the variety collector.. . 150.00

712. 1800 S-197, VERY FAIR, olive green. Double struck, with a second LIBER obscuring last cipher of date and reverse showing a second UNI and a second fraction 1/100 over S OF A. Double strikes are more than unusual in early cents and are in great demand among mint error collectors. 20.00

713. 1800 S-203. The Incused Reverse. EXTREMELY FINE, lustrous chocolate surfaces, an altogether lovely cent. Third finest known of the variety and of equal interest to the one-of-a-date and variety collector. 150.00

714. 1800 S-210, Rarity 7. VERY GOOD, glossy natural brown. Rarest collectible variety of the year and one of the two known examples of the very early obverse die state sans the downward-slanting die break from ER across forelock to rim. Ex Dupont and Sheldon collections, and a great prize for the variety collector. 125.00

715. 1801 S-215, Rarity 6. FINE, gray steel, the obverse very sharp. Unbroken obverse and uninjured reverse dies. One of the great rarities of the year and even rarer in these die states. 85.00

716. 1801 S-221. VERY FINE, with claims to EXTREMELY FINE. Even light brown and in the Condition Census. Much sought type coin and markedly superior to the Downing and Dupont examples. 125.00

717. 1801 S-223. Fraction 1/000. VERY GOOD, well toned olive green, reverse flatly struck as usual. Heavy die break below RT. Noted type coin.. . . . . 20.00

718. 1801 S-224. VERY FINE, almost EXTREMELY FINE. Well toned chocolate, and an excellent mate for the preceding S-221. . . . . 60.00

719. 1802 S-NC-1, Newcomb 3. VERY FINE, dark gray steel, clean and well balanced. Formerly a NON-COLLECTIBLE and still Rarity 6. Die cracked from top to bottom of obverse, accounting for the short life and great rarity of this die. The instant specimen is well up in the Condition Census and a notable feather for the die specialist's cap. 175.00

720. 1802 S-232. EXTREMELY FINE, glittering medium brown steel, late state of both dies with well advanced rim breaks. Common variety but decidedly uncommon so.. . . 50.00

721. 1803 S-247. EXTREMELY FINE. The famous "Mumps" observe, so named from die crumbling under chin. Perfectly toned light natural brown, clean surfaces, a few insignificant bag marks. Rarer than Sheldon first thought, and this piece is Condition Census.. . . . . 100.00

722. 1803 S-254. Wide Date. EXTREMELY FINE, appealing golden brown with autumn tones. Excellent for the one-of-a-date collector. $60.00

723. 1803 S-259, Rarity 6. VERY FINE, dark steel, strong reverse. The very rare "Ghost 3" variety, with the even rarer heavy break thru tops of TAT (Newcomb's state 12d). Only half a dozen such examples known, and this is one of the finest. 75.00

724. 1805 S-267. Blunt 1. ABOUT UNCIRCULATED, with claims to MINT STATE. A beautiful golden brown, perfect surfaces - in short, everything an early cent should be. Must be seen to be appreciated, and undoubtedly would bring well up into three figures in a "name" sale held in New York City. 175.00

725. 1807 S-274. Perfect Date, Small Fraction. VERY FINE, gray steel, characteristic die sinking at STA. Rarity 4, almost Rarity 5 - another case where Sheldon underestimated the scarcity of a variety. 35.00

726. 1807 S-275, Rarity 5. PERFECT DATE, LG. FRACTION, VERY FINE. Glossy reddish brown steel, sharply struck a trifle off center. A few pits, but still most desirable.. . . . . 50.00

727. 1810 Perfect Date, unattributed. GOOD obverse, VERY GOOD reverse, dark olive. Reverse struck considerably off center and planchet pinched at the top, where it flowed over in the striking. Very unusual and interesting mint error.. . . . . 25.00

728. 1811 S-287. Perfect Date. EXTREMELY FINE and sharp, glossy deep olive green, clean and attractive surfaces. Struck in exactly the same manner as the preceding off-center S-275. Type coin in great demand. 85.00

729. 1817 N-15, Rarity 6. EXTREMELY FINE, medium natural brown. Date skewed far to left. One of the rarest cents of the year, and this specimen among the finest.. . . 35.00

769. 1943 Cent A.U. In Copper
This item is one of the most talked about publicized coins in the last few years. Offers have been made on this piece from time to time ranging from $11,000 to $15,000.00. This coin is guaranteed genuine and the Purchaser will receive notarized papers from an accredited testing laboratory.

770. 1944P cent in steel - uncirculated. We have never seen one in this condition and consider this gem a very exciting find. There is no reason why this piece should not be placed in the same category as #769.

CONFEDERATE STATES OF AMERICA

EXCESSIVELY RARE HALF DIME

OBVERSE: Unfurled Confederate flag; date 1861; and inscription around border, "A UNITED SOUTH."

REVERSE: Sprig of cotton plant, with leaves and cotton balls; encircled within ring of 15 stars.

The last known sale of a Confederate half dime is listed in the famous JENKS collection. It was sold at auction by the outstanding dealer of the day, Mr. Henry Chapman, in 1921. Mr. Jenks started his great collection in about 1850, and he continued with great zeal until his death in 1919. Mr. Chapman describes the Confederate Half Dime as "Excessively rare." To our knowledge, since that time there has not been another specimen offered.
